SENIOR LEAGUE.

IMPERIALS 4 — LAURELS 2.

May 15.—The Imperials took another leap towards the pennant last Monday by defeating the Laurels in a rather close game. The hits on both sides were few, but the Imperials nosed out a victory owing to errors of the Laurels at critical times.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	R.	H.	E.
Imperials	2	0	0	0	2	4	3	2
Laurels	0	2	0	0	0	2	4	3

ROYALS 1 — CARDINALS 5.

May 17.—One of the longest and most evenly contested games seen on the St. Joe diamonds in many years took place last Wednesday between the Royals and Cardinals.

The Royals were leading the league with a record of five straight victories, and were determined to win, but the Cardinals were equally determined to break their "hoodoo," and so they battled for nineteen long innings.

The game was won and lost many a time, and the contest should have been decided in the eleventh, but poor base running on the part of the Royals defeated them.

Both Fiely and Lill pitched masterful ball, and while Fiely seemed to weaken a little, Lill seemed to pitch all the harder and was as steady in the nineteenth as he was in the first inning.

A walk and then a few errors seemed to take all the ginger out of the Royals, and they were defeated; the Cardinals netted four runs in the nineteenth.

Card's	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	4	5	4	5
Royals	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	0	0	0

SHAMROCKS 4 — LAURELS 2.

May 18.—The Shamrocks added another victory to their credit last Thursday by defeating the Laurels. McArdle did the twirling for the Shamrocks and the Laurels were unable to touch him, while Westhoven was hit at will. McArdle getting three hits himself.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	R.	H.	E.
Shamrocks	1	1	0	0	2	4	6	2
Laurels	0	0	0	2	0	2	3	1

ALL STARS 3 — RELIGIOUS 1.

May 21.—The All Stars succeeded in defeating the Religious Sunday in a fast and exciting game. Grathwohl starred at the bat and won the game for the All Stars in the eighth inning with a clean single, sending two men across the plate. Landoll was on the mound for the Religious and pitched a good game. Lill was in his usual good form.

Innings.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
All Stars	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	2	0	3	3	5

"AMONG THE JUNIORS."

GIANTS—vs—PIRATES.

May 18.—The Pirates through their opportune hitting won to-day's contest by the score of 6 to 2. Kihm was in rare form and pitched a hitless game whilst Lambert was unsteady at the critical moment and the errors behind him gave the Pirates their victory.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	R.	H.	E.
Giants	0	0	2	0	0	2	0	5
Pirates	2	2	2	0	0	6	3	2

Batteries: Kihm and Debrecht; Lambert and Allen.

REDS—vs—DOVES.

May 19. The Reds lost a hard fought contest to the Doves by the score of 2 to 1. The game was exciting and interesting from the start, and both pitchers were at their best. Muller, however, had one bad inning in which two runs were scored on him and these proved too many for the Reds to overcome. The line-drive catch of Burger featured the game.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	R.	H.	E.
REDS	0	0	0	1	0	1	4	2
Doves	0	0	0	2	0	2	3	2

GIANT—vs—CUBS.

May 21.—The Cubs managed to connect with Lambert's curves, hit him unmercifully and thus easily gained another victory by the score of 15 to 7. The Cubs scored their runs in the opening innings and continued to pile up their scores until the very last out. Fourteen hits were made on Lambert, while Kozacik allowed but six safe bingles. The batting of Nolan was the feature of the contest.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
Giants	2	2	0	0	0	1	0	0	2	7	6	2
Cubs	3	1	1	1	3	3	0	3	0	12	14	2

POETS' CORNER.

GUYRUS STEPP.

Come all you wholesalers if yon want to hear
The story about the banana peddler,
Guyrus Stepp was the peddler's name;
With his two by four cart, boys, he won his fame.

Stepp got up at a half past four,
Put out his fruit stand and filled his two by four:
He said, come Campeau, let us make a start,
You take the peanuts and I'll take the cart.
Chorus:

Guyrus Stepp pushed his two by four cart,
Guyrus Stepp, Campeau by his side,
Guyrus Stepp pushed his two by four cart,
And he took his two by four cart to sell a banana.

Come all you fielders if you want to hear
The Story about the star right fielder,
Guyrus Stepp is this fielder's name;
In the S. J. C. league he won his fame.
Stepp went to see a game at half past three,
With the bases filled, he said, it is up to me,
I'll have to pinch hit for them and win the bout,
But it was too bad, for Stepp struck out.
Chorus:

Guyrus Stepp walked right up to the rubber,
Guyrus Stepp with a bat in his hand,
Guyrus Stepp walked right up to the rubber,
He walked right up to the rubber but he struck out.

COLLEGEVILLE SPORTING NEWS

Entered as first class matter at Collegeville P. O., Ind.

EDITOR'S NOTES.

Those who witnessed the game Sunday afternoon are agreed on the point that St. Joe has a coming team in the Juniors. Many of these youngsters certainly have base ball blood in them. Kihm was born of a professional family, his father being manager of the Grand Rapids team and for a long time a high man in the base ball world. Lambert is another exceptionally fast little player for his size. In fact, the entire infield of the team that played Sunday were classy. Their wings around the bases were straight and true as old leaguers, while they gave an object lesson to the Royals in base running. If these boys stay at College a few years longer, we shall have a Varsity that will equal our old standard.

LOCALS.

Skeets—Say Capt. when are you going to let me pitch again?

Capt.—As soon as we wish to lose another game.

Five Dollars reward for the return of Blottman's goat, lost the night of the R. J. S. C. minstrel.

Bone Kennedy—What time does the 10:45 train arrive?

Ticket Agent—At 10:45.

Bone—Well that aint telling me what time it arrives. I want to know what time the 1045 arrives.

G. Kussmaul would like to know how many minutes there are in a German hour.

Condon—What's an Areoplane like?

G. Pax—A bird with wooden feathers.

Prof.—What is eternity like

Carmody—From now until June 14th.

The Columbian Literary Society will give "Under The Flag" June 13.

Reed—Gee but your strong Goetz.

Goetz—No wonder I had onions for dinner.

ODE TO A TOOTHPICK.

Francis Quinn is long and slim, —not fat but lean

If he wouldn't be talking he wouldn't be seen.

He was playing detective in the billiard hall

Arranging the cues and rackin the balls,

A fellow made a shot and broke his cue So he took Skeets by the neck and said you will do,

He finished the game without a kick And put skeets up with the rest of the sticks.

What a terrible plight it is to be thin To be used by every Tom, Dick and Slim But the maker has shaped everyone for a task

We have discovered your vocation, poor Skeets at last

Dont worry about your glorious future, You will be daintly treated by your fellow creature,

When also you will get the fatal shot, And receive the pay of the poor cues lot.
